Join us for the talk

Ramadan: Spiritual Journey of a Muslim

Margaret Johnson, Ph.D. is a sociologist, business owner, author, and speaker. She converted to Islam during Ramadan more than twenty years ago. She will share about the theological aspects of Ramadan as well as her personal journey to fasting this sacred month.

Join our informal discussion with plenty of time for Q&A.

Introduction to Ramadan program for non-Muslim kids

Interfaith Homeschool

We are doing a park meetup for parents and kids to introduce Ramadan, the Muslim month of fasting. We will read a short story about Ramadan, and do a craft. Attendees will get a goody bag with middle eastern sweets and dates.

Introduction to Ramadan program for Washington-based families

The screenshot displays a Zoom meeting interface. At the top, the Zoom control bar includes icons for Mute, Stop Video, Security, Participants (7), New Share, Pause Share, Annotate, Remote Control, and More. A green notification bar indicates "You are screen sharing" with a "Stop Share" button. The main content area shows a slide with the text "What is a typical day like?". Below the text are two images: the left image shows a variety of traditional Ramadan dishes including hummus, falafel, pita bread, and baklava; the right image shows a family of seven people sitting on a patterned rug around a table laden with food, engaged in a meal. On the right side of the screen, a vertical stack of video thumbnails shows participants: Angela Ayaz, Allia Smallbrock, Mehmet Ayaz, Kellen Gonsalves, and Julie Gonsalves.
